INDIAN ENTERPRISES ARE investing in big data analytics to base decisions on real-time data, and depending on such solutions is poised to grow by 11.5% in 2021 to touch $2 billion, according to research firm IDC. IDC estimates big data technology and service-related spending to grow with a five-year CAGR of 14.6% over the forecast period of 2020-25.

From an industry standpoint, banking has the largest share of spending in 2021, with an expected CAGR of 13.7% during the forecast period till 2025, IDC said. "The banking industry has gained in-depth cognizance in numerous facets of operations—from data being an asset for the unpredictable environment, customer satisfaction, enhancing productivity and performance. The banking industry is now making decisions much faster than the traditional ways by leveraging analytics," it added.

Telecommunication is the second leading industry in adopting big data analytics (BDA) solutions to understand customers, business, and overall operations, it said. The banking and telecom industries are expected to contribute to over 30% of the BDA spend in 2021. Spending by public-sector

Tata Power subsidiary commissions 150 MW solar project in Rajasthan

TATA POWER ON Tuesday announced the commissioning of a 150 megawatt (MW) solar project in Loharkh Village in Rajasthan, which is expected to generate over 350 million units of electricity every year. The project is spread over 756 acres and implemented by its 100% subsidiary Tata Power Renewable Energy (TPREL), Tata Power said.

Without disclosing financial details, it said approximately 6.56 lakh modules were used in the project and the installation is expected to reduce 3.34 lakh tonnes of carbon emission every year. For the smooth progression of the installation, 48 inverters, 720 KM of DC cable and 550 manpower have been used.

"The commissioning of the 150 MW project in Loharkh, Rajasthan, has further fortified our position as one of the leading renewable energy companies in the country, with a strong presence in solar power generation. We will continue to seek the potential for sustainable growth of renewable power in India," Pooja Sinha, CEO & MD, Tata Power, said. —PTI

Chinese EV maker BYD to launch MPV for B2B sector

FE BUREAU CHENNAI, August 24

CHINA-HEADQUARTERED electric vehicle maker BYD Company, which has completed eight years of business operations in India, on Tuesday said it is planning to launch its electric multi-purpose vehicle (MPV) for the B2B segment soon.

Without divulging details, the firm said it has taken a strategic decision on the back of rising demand for EVs in India. Ketsu Zhang, ED, BYD India, said, "We have received tremendous response for our electric buses as well as forklifts, especially from the Indian public and B2B sector. Seeing this, we have decided to introduce more e-CVs to the B2B segment starting Q4, 2021. BYD is also entering markets in many other countries in the Asia-Pacific region.
